

THE SIX-MONTH BUILD

Session Two

The three-year program plan starts today.

SAFESPACE × SOBO • WEDNESDAY, 3:00 PM

THE RITUAL

Start with a win.

One each, from the last two days. Small counts. This is how every session opens from now on.

What we'll do today

- 01 Your baseline: the check-in and your first pitch
 - 02 Your organization, in your words
 - 03 The teaching: the peer is the power
 - 04 The sort: everything you do, on the wall
 - 05 Five answers I can't write the plan without
 - 06 Your Bloom
 - 07 Where we are, and your questions

BASELINE • DO

Your first pitch.

Sixty seconds each: what does SafeSpace do, and why does it matter? No notes. Rough is the point, this is the before picture.

01

What we heard

Your organization, in your words.

THE MIRROR

Here's what you told us.

I'll walk it back department by department. Stop me where I'm wrong, add what we missed. What you confirm today is what the plan gets built from.

02

The teaching

Fewer things, done well.

PROGRAM 01

In youth mental health, the peer is the power.

A young person hears it differently from another young person. Youth leadership isn't how SafeSpace delivers. It's why SafeSpace works.

PROGRAM 02

Do fewer things, done well.

Sprawl burns out a small team and blurs the story. Nobody funds twelve things. A flagship focuses your money, your people, and your pitch.

PROGRAM 03

You can't budget what you haven't defined.

Next week Shannon builds your three-year budget. She can't price a program nobody has defined. That's why today comes first.

03

The sort

Everything you do, on the wall.

BUILD · DO

Everything on the wall.

Your full list, all of it. We sort it together, and nothing gets released today without the reason said out loud.

04

Five answers

What I can't write the plan without.

ANSWER 01 • THE FLOOR

What does every SYAB member get, guaranteed?

Not what varies. What's promised. Hours, weeks, and what they walk out with.

ANSWER 02 · THE SHAPE

Deeper, or wider?

Same schools, done deeper. Or more schools. Pick one.

ANSWER 03 • WHO DELIVERS

How much of this should the kids run?

Susan said eighty percent, once. Is seventy-five the three-year target, or was that thinking out loud?

ANSWER 04 • THE CEILING

At what number does each program break?

Kids, schools, events in a month. The number where it stops working.

ANSWER 05 • THE LEAK

A student does one workshop. Then what?

Right now it ends there. On purpose, or a gap you'd close if you could?

YOUR SYSTEM

Your Bloom.

A first look at yours, built from your own words this week.
We'll live in it together from here.

THE ARC

Plan. Budget. Ask.

Last week we listened. Today, the plan. Next week, the budget that prices it. Then the ask that funds it, and the ten-year story it earns.

OPEN FLOOR

What are you wondering?

Anything about where we are. Anything about Bloom.
Nothing is off the table, and short answers now beat long confusion later.

THIS WEEK

Before Tuesday

EVERYONE

The draft program plan lands tomorrow. Read it Monday. Mark what's wrong, what's missing, and what you won't commit to for three years.

SUSAN

The financials package for Shannon: last two years of actuals and the current budget. Plus the grant status list: every grant, active or completed, with the county's exact status and end date.

ARIS & JASMINE

Pitch practice, five minutes together. Rep three.

Fewer things.
Done well. Funded fully.

SEE YOU TUESDAY.
